SIR,

With reference to your Official Memorandum No.645/Edn.5-15-5 dated 7th August 1915 forwarding for report a petition from the widow of the late Mr. B.J. Kumarasami Naik praying that her son may be admitted into the Arsu Boarding School at Mysore, I have the honour to inform you that I had a talk with the lady on the subject a few days ago and she is very keen that her son should be admitted into the Boarding School and enabled to prosecute his studies under the gracious auspices of His Highness the Maharaja. The boy is about 12 years old and is at present a student of the Malleswaram Government Anglo-Vernacular School. She also urged that her eldest daughter who is about 16 years old may be given a scholarship to enable her to complete her education. There is no doubt that the family has suddenly, by the death of Mr.Kumarasami Naik, been obliged to face considerable difficulties and the pension of Rs.50 granted to Mrs.Kumaraswami Naik even with some other slender sources is hardly enough for their maintenance. I think that Mrs. Kumarasami Naik deserves the generous sympathy of Government. Considering that in the past stipends have been sanctioned to the children of officers of Government suddenly left in reduced circumstances, I recommend Mrs.Kumarasami Naik's case also to the consideration of Government. As no definite rules have been laid down regulating the grant of such allowances, I find it hard to mention any particular amounts. But if permitted to make a suggestion, I beg to state that the boy referred to, in case he cannot, for any reasons, be admitted into the Arsu Boarding Home, be given a stipend of Rs.20 per month till he attains the age of 18 years, on showing satisfactory progress in his studies from year to year. In the case of the eldest daughter whose education is yet to be completed, a monthly allowance of Rs.15 till she is married or for 2 years whichever is earlier, may be granted.

case

I return the petition addressed to His Highness the Maharaja herewith.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K. Shamarao.

Inspector General.
